

This Water Goes North: The story of a journey, a dream, and a summer

In 1979 four Iowa farm boys—with beat-up canoes and no experience—hatched a plan to paddle 1,400 miles from Minnesota to Hudson Bay.

An inspiring and heartwarming tale of adventure, friendship, and the indomitable spirit of youth.

“Reads like an adventure novel, but is a true-life story . . . very much recommended, enthralling reading.”

—MIDWEST BOOK REVIEW

“Delightful . . . beautifully written. More than just a travelogue, it is about living life to the fullest.”

—WENDY WENDT, 2008 president,
