

WE RECOMMEND

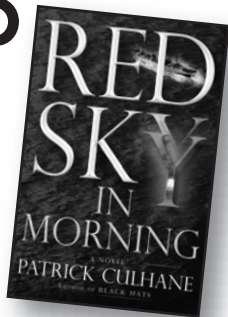

THIS

PICK

RED SKY IN MORNING is a terrific World War II novel with a 'Midwest Connection'. Patrick Culhane is the pen name of Iowa suspense novelist Max Allan Collins, who has based his book on his own father's WWII experiences. An exciting and thought-provoking novel set on the USS Liberty Hill, stationed at San Francisco's Port Chicago, with a young naval officer from the Hawkeye state in the middle of the action.

Come in today for your copy!

SHOP LOCALLY