

A FUNNY, FEMINIST TWIST ON A FAVORITE TALL TALE

Abounding with oversize visual and verbal humor, here is the previously untold story of Paul Bunyan's "little" sister, who was as tall as a pine tree, as strong as a dozen moose, and could run so fast that she once ran all the way back to yesterday. As she heads to the North Woods in search of freedom and adventure, Paula uses her brains and brawn to surmount every challenge that comes her way, proving to ferocious animals that she's their friend and becoming protector of a wild wonderland.

Everyone knows about Paul Bunyan . . . But not many people know about Paula Bunyan, his little sister. Maybe "little" isn't the right word.
