

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Charlene Ann Baumbich is a popular author and speaker (“fascinating” would be her word of choice) and an award-winning journalist. Her stories, essays, and columns have appeared in numerous magazines and newspapers, including the Chicago Tribune, the Chicago Sun-Times, and Today’s Christian Woman. In addition to her Dearest Dorothy series of novels, she has written seven nonfiction books of humor and inspiration. She lives in Glen Ellyn, Illinois with retired hubby, George, and Kornflake, her big red dog. Kornflake was adopted from the Winona Area Humane Society in Winona, Minnesota. He helped her write much of this book by cheering her on, taking her for muse-inducing walks, and keeping her toes warm while she typed.
