

A MIDWEST CONNECTIONS PICK

OUT OF THE NORTHWOODS: THE MANY LIVES OF PAUL BUNYAN

Everyone has heard the tale of the lumberjack hero Paul Bunyan and his big blue ox, but Out of the Northwoods tells the true tale of who Paul Bunyan was and his roots in the Wisconsin northwoods. It includes eyewitness accounts of how the first Bunyan stories were shared on frigid winter nights around logging camp stoves in the Wisconsin pinery. It describes where tales began, how they moved out of the forest and into print, and why publication changed them forever.

Hardcover ~ $24.95 ~ 978-0-87020-437-1

“The real Paul Bunyan of lumber camp storytelling lives through Michael Edmond's superbly researched, richly illustrated, and engagingly written study. The last and best word on Bunyan!”— James P. Leary, professor and director of the Folklore Program, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Michael Edmonds has published several books and articles on literary and intellectual history. He joined the staff of the Wisconsin Historical Society in 1982 and helped lead its effort to mount rare books and manuscripts on the Web, stumbling on the mystery of Paul Bunyan's origin while looking for lumberjack memoirs to share online.

Wisconsin Historical Society
P R E S S

wisconsinhistory.org/whspress

