

MOTHERHOOD

A Radio Collection

GARRISON KEILLOR
 PERFORMED BY GARRISON KEILLOR
 AND AN ENSEMBLE CAST

A Prairie Home Companion celebrates motherhood as only they can: with equal parts laughter and love—and maybe just a little guilt.

She brought you forth out of the cloud of genetics and fed and clothed you and taught you to wipe yourself and say Please and Thank You and never expected you to pay her back, only that you behave appropriately and try to make something of yourself and not land in prison but if you had, she'd love you because after all she's your Mother."

—GARRISON KEILLOR

Collected from live radio broadcasts of A Prairie Home Companion, these rib-tickling and heart-warming stories and songs celebrate the ups and downs of motherhood. Includes the News from Lake Wobegon, and guest appearances from Robin & Linda Williams, Inga Swearingen, Vern Sutton, Prudence Johnson, the Rankin Family, and more.
