“WOW. Thief is a classic exploration of ‘the dark night of the soul.’ It delves into the ideas of redemption/forgiveness for yourself and others. It is multifaceted with a compelling story line, and the characters are fascinating and very human.

With a blatant, sometimes almost painful, honesty, the book grabbed me from the first page! I can see this used in reading groups and literature classes. One of THE BEST books I have read in a while.”

SUZANNE BELIEVES SHE KNOWS WHO SHE IS: a former wild child, neither a virgin nor virginal as a teen; someone who pulls for the wayward children she now teaches in Minnesota. She’s survived good love, bad love, and people who don’t care at all.

In writing that has been likened to Kate Chopin’s, Maureen Gibbon constructs a taut story of desire at the other end of the Mississippi, in the north woods of Minnesota. Against deep lakes, casinos, and a bar named the Royal, Gibbon’s unconventional characters show us how to play the hands we’re dealt. This is a tough and tender book about redemption from one of America’s most original writers.
