SOMETIMES HOPE CAN BE FOUND
IN THE MOST UNLIKELY PLACES.

FROM THE AUTHOR OF THE BOOK OF BRIGHT IDEAS COMES A NOVEL OF UNLIKELY FRIENDSHIPS THAT SHOWS WE ARE ALL BOTH TEACHERS AND STUDENTS . . . AND THAT THE ONLY OPINION THAT REALLY MATTERS IS THE ONE WE HAVE OF OURSELVES.

“SANDRA KRING NEVER FAILS TO IMPRESS ME.”

—LESLEY KAGEN, bestselling author of Whistling in the Dark

“Sandra Kring has written A FUNNY, DEEPLY SATISFYING BOOK; her characters finagle their way into your heart.”

—LORNA LANDVIK, author of Angry Housewives Eating Bon Bons

“FLAT-OUT ENDEARING . . . It’s about love, life, and the beautiful music we hear in our hearts if we pause, for just a moment, to listen.”

—CATHY LAMB, author of Julia’s Chocolates

Ten-year-old Isabella “Teaspoon” Marlene is a handful.

She fights, fibs, and is as unpredictable and fearless as a puppy off its leash.

But, when she agrees to take part in a mentorship program and is paired up with Brenda Bloom, the beautiful reigning Sweetheart of Mill Town, Wisconsin, a funny thing happens. This unlikely duo discovers a special friendship, and, in the end, one determined little girl shows an entire town the healing that can happen when you let your heart take center stage.
