

“Michelle Hoover’s fine debut novel recreates for us a way of life and a set of personalities that have vanished from our current scene, and she does so with a solidity of detail that will impress these people and these places forever on your memory.”

—Charles Baxter, author of The Feast of Love

A STORY OF AN EPIC FEUD,
MARKED BY VIOLENCE
AND RETRIBUTION,
BETWEEN TWO
NEIGHBORING FARM
MATRIARCHS LIVING IN THE MIDWEST DURING THE GREAT DEPRESSION.

“I grew up among Iowa farm women, and Michelle Hoover has perfectly captured their voices and stories with great wisdom, tenderness, and beauty.”

—Ted Kooser, U. S. Poet Laureate 2004-2006

“In this finely wrought and starkly atmospheric narrative starkly atmospheric narrative, Hoover’s characters carry deep secrets, and their emotions are as intense as the acts of nature that shape their world.”
