

A MIDWEST CONNECTIONS PICK

From the National Book Award and National Book Critics Circle Award finalist—an odyssey of a novel about a girl’s search for love and identity.

“Once Upon a River is a beautiful piece of work . . . Never simple, never predictable, utterly wonderful. I just loved this book.” —Dorothy Allison, author of Trash and Bastard Out of Carolina

“American fiction waited a long time for Bonnie Jo Campbell to come along.”
—Jaimy Gordon,
National Book Award winner

“A dramatic and rhapsodic American odyssey. A glorious novel destined to entrance and provoke.”
—Booklist (starred review)
