Black Sunday

Following the fate of one family over the course of two decades in Nigeria, this debut novel tells the story of each sibling's search for agency, love, and meaning in a society rife with hypocrisy but also endless life.

Recommended if you like: Housegirl by Michael Donkor

---

Everywhere You Don’t Belong

A visceral, vivid, and urgent novel about a young black man growing up on Chicago's South Side—an arresting debut from a sparkling new literary talent.

Recommended if you like: There There by Tommy Orange

---

Twenty

Defiantly uplifting, Twenty by Debra Landwehr Engle is a transformative story about making peace with the past and allowing joy to bloom in our daily lives.

Recommended if you like: The Stuff That Never Happened by Maddie Dawson

---

Martin McLean, Middle School Queen

In this bighearted middle-grade debut, Martin McLean struggles to find his voice—and his inner diva—as he navigates friendship, family, first crushes, and a whole lot of glitter.

Recommended if you like: The First Rule of Punk by Celia C. Pérez
The Midwest Independent Booksellers Association advances the success of independent bookstores, fosters partnerships that create a strong bookselling and publishing community, and celebrates the vital literary culture of our region.

www.MidwestBooksellers.org