

MIDWEST CONNECTIONS

Loudermilk

by Lucy Ives

"Loudermilk made me understand and enjoy poetry more than any English teacher I have ever had. With a vast array of colorful characters . . . this takeoff of Cyrano de Bergerac is consistently hilarious and at times genuinely beautiful."

—John Kemp, Left Bank Books (St. Louis, MO)

Lucy Ives

For more information, visit www.MidwestBooksellers.org.

MIDWEST CONNECTIONS

Summer Demands

by Deborah Shapiro

"Shapiro's prose is elegant, effortless, but it's her characters that will keep you up late into the night, hoping you can save them."

—Stephanie Danler, author of Sweetbitter

Deborah Shapiro

For more information, visit www.MidwestBooksellers.org.

MIDWEST CONNECTIONS

Reflections on a Life in Exile

by J. F. Riordan

"A book that is easy to pick up for a quick dip in the morning or evening, but also holds up to a lovely afternoon in an adirondack chair soaking up the sun along with the reflections."

—Deb Wayman, Fair Isle Books, Washington Island, WI

J. F. Riordan

For more information, visit www.MidwestBooksellers.org.

MIDWEST CONNECTIONS

The Unforgettable Guinevere St. Clair

By Amy Makechnie

"If Scout Finch had had a sister, she would be future 'world-famous lawyer' Guinevere St. Clair. [She] is indeed 100 percent unforgettable."

—Kirkus Reviews, starred review

Amy Makechnie

For more information, visit www.MidwestBooksellers.org.