

MIDWEST CONNECTIONS

We're All in This Together

by Amy Jones

"The novel recalls Jonathan Franzen in The Corrections, or an ensemble TV dramedy you can't stop watching: both serious about family and lighthearted."

—Globe and Mail

Amy Jones

For more information, visit www.MidwestBooksellers.org.

MIDWEST CONNECTIONS

The Current

by Tim Johnston

"Another freezing mystery from Tim Johnston, this time on the border of Minnesota and Iowa. Throw in just a teeny bit of magic and you have a nail-biting trip up and down an iced-over river, just out of reach of whoever is looking for you. So much fun!"

—Anne Holman, King's English Bookshop

Tim Johnston

For more information, visit www.MidwestBooksellers.org.

MIDWEST CONNECTIONS

Women Rowing North

by Mary Pipher

"I wish desperately that I'd had the good fortune to read this book years ago. . . . Pipher drives home the truth that we own and control our stories, even after the fact. We are in control of the narrative, the interpretation and ultimately our own authentic final chapter."

—Robin Templin, Watermark Books (Wichita, KS)

Mary Pipher

For more information, visit www.MidwestBooksellers.org.

MIDWEST CONNECTIONS

Bim, Bam, Bop and Oona

by Jacqueline Briggs Martin

Illustrated by Larry Day

"Martin tells the tale in rollicking cadences just right for reading aloud. 'A gust of wind grabbed the sails and up she went. OOO-hoolie-hoo!' "

—Kirkus Reviews

Jacqueline Briggs Martin and Larry Day

For more information, visit www.MidwestBooksellers.org.